THE war, which has brought a new tax upon us, the pressure of public business, disturbed trade conditions and important trade opportunities did not prevent the President from taking members of his cabinet away from their duties and sendthe four congressmen.

WHEREVER Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh devotion to the cause of good government, his sympathy with the aspirations of the people, his strong convictions and his lofty ideals. The State is fortunate in the possession of such men, and the Republican party has every reason to be proud of its candidate for Governor .--Punxy Spirit.

WHEN former President Taft happened to refer to himself as the "titular leader" of the Republican party, the Democratic papers made an awful howl. They said he should be President of the American people rather than leader of a party. President Wilson now calls himself "the leader of a great party" and the same editors applaud. Are there two standards of political morals, one for Republicans and one for Democrats?

"A WAR TAX is demanded in order to cover the $53,000,000 River and Harbor pork barrel now being fought in the Senate by Burton, Kenyon, Norris and two or three others," is the statement of Congressman James A. Frear of Wisconsin. "Without the pork barrel the special war tax might be avoided." The pork barrel is only another name for plain public stealing and tooting of the public treasury. Whoever heard of levying a war tax in time of peace? Cut down the tariff to a free trade basis, then levy a "war tax" to make up the deficit! Great statesmanship! Great is Democracy! Turn in now, ye that favor the plan, and elect more of down and work grows scarcer. If that's we have made during the past year. what you like, vote the Democratic ticket | Whereas, We believe in total abstinence But we don't believe you like it.

W. C. T. U. Convention At Clarington.

This convention was one distinguished for the spirit of love and courtesy that prevailed at each session, not an inbarmonious note being struck the entire time. "The work and not the worker." was the dominant thought. This article will be but a brief resume of the proceedings, trusting that each delegate will enlarge as she reports to the home union.

The opening session at 2 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 15th, found seven unions well represented, Kellettville alone failing to answer at roll call. After the devotional exercises, Mrs. Brewer, of Clarington, read the address of welcome, which was responded to as follows: By Mrs. Geo. F. Watson and Mrs. Suie May Sharpe for Tionesta; Mrs. Lyman Cook for Nebraska; Mrs. Orion Siggins for West Hickory; Mrs. Jacob Yeager for Endeavor; Mrs. Sarah Murray for Gilfoyle, and Mrs. Belle Dean for Marienville. For zeal and increased membership Forest county received as awards subscriptions of four Union Signals and ten Pennsylvania State Bulletins. They were given out as follows: For doubled membership, Clarington, Endeavor and Gilfoyle each a Union Signal; the county president a Union Signal; the Bulletins go to each union. Mrs. Myrta Huling, the county president, read her annual address, a paper on the past year's work and an outline for the future. Many good suggestions were given and for this excellent address the convention gave their leader a rising vote of thanks. The report of the county treasurer, Mrs. Kelly, showed the organization in good financial condition. A memorial service for those who have left was held as the closing of the first session. Mrs. Orion Siggins read the memoir for the late national president, Mrs. Stevens; Mrs. Geo. Watson that for Mr. Reuben Moon; Mrs. Lottle Knopp for Mrs. Carrie Carson; Mrs. Cook for Mr. T. D. Collins and Mrs. Nettie Imhoff. Clarington also had memorials for Mrs. Aguew, Mrs. Frazer, Mrs. Hillard and Mrs. Meze, all faithful members of the W. C. T. U. The Tuesday evening session found a full bouse ready to be entertained. The solo by little Miss Christine Heasley and the readings by Miss Flossie Braden were of unusual merit and elicited hearty applause. Mrs. Parsels was then introduced and gave a masterly address, her subject being "The early temperance movement and the value of a boy," She asked the young men to take the front seats and led by the high school teacher, Mr. Charles White, a score of them responded and gave her close attention. Any one listening to Mrs. Parsels cannot fail to have a new vision as to the great complaint but nothing did me much good far as Sheffield, Friday, and will remain possibilities of the American boy and until about four months ago I saw Chamther for a short visit. girl and wish to protect them from evil in all its forms.

Wednesday forenoon reports of superintendents were taken up. They were all excellent and deserve special mention but we must not try the patience of our friends, the editors, 'oo far, so we pass out the report of the Corresponding Secretary, which showed an increase of over 100 members since the last convention. The election of officers was then held, with one exception all those in office be-

Wednesday afternoon a recitation by Mrs. Edith Murray, "Peter at the Gate," was well received. "Progress of Suffrage," by Mrs. Sharpe, was a very full and splendid resume of the movement in every land up to the present time. Round Table, by Mrs. Mechling, brought out some bright thoughts by those who took part. Committee on place read invitations from Nebraska and Marienville, that of the latter place being accepted. Wednesday evening a crowded house greeted the speakers. Miss Sophia Mechling recited one of the best short temperance selections we have ever listened too, and right here we would say that Clarington seems to have an unusual number of young folks who can sing and speak in public. Other towns had better sit up and take notice, for we expect to have some Medal contests this year. Mrs. Parsels' second lecture was on the same line as the previous evening. In all her appeal for pledge signers and new members resulted in 35 responding. The colsubstitute McCormick for Finn as the lections were fine, amounting to something over $26 00.
